

Opposing Viewpoints in Context is a social issues database that contains pro/con arguments on current controversial topics such as gun control, genetic engineering, censorship, endangered species, and terrorism. Viewpoint essays, statistics, legal cases, as well as links to reviewed web sites are included. Print versions of the Opposing Viewpoints, Current Controversies, Contemporary Issues and At Issue series are also available in the MCC Libraries.

Use this database when you have to:

- ⌚ write an argumentative essay or position paper
- ⌚ find information about social issues
- ⌚ narrow the scope of a controversial issue
