

How to Find an article in the EBSCO databases

- Go to the library home page (<http://libguides.middlesex.mass.edu/library>)
- Find the link All of our databases in the center panel and click
- Locate EBSCO in the list of databases

We suggest you start with Masterfile and Academic Search for most topics.

Select the databases by placing a check and

The database will default to a keyword basic search.

Additional options are available.

- Enter your search terms in the box provided.

Database: MasterFILE Premier; Academic Search Premier

Find:

Depending on your results you might want to limit to only articles available in full-text, a specific journal or local information available at Middlesex. The local information option is useful when only a citation is available in EBSCO but the library has a copy of the periodical on its shelf.

Click on the search button next to the terms you entered. The search results will retrieve full text articles which can be printed or emailed to your home.

Contact a reference librarian for additional assistance by email mccref@noble.net , telephone (Bedford 781-280-3706 or Lowell 978-656-3005) or IM from the library home page (<http://libguides.middlesex.mass.edu>)